Never give up!

Never give up! though the grape shot may rattle, Or the full thunder cloud over you burst. Stand like a took, and the storm or the battle Little shall harm you although doing their worst. Never give up! if adversity presses,
Providence wisely has mingled the cup,
And the best counsel in all your distresses,
Is the stout-heartrd watchword of never give up.

Doings ABOUT SUFFOLK .- For several days past, says the Petersburg Express of yesterday, various and conflicting rumors have prevailed here and in Richmond concerning the movements of the enemy about Suffolk.

We have information direct from Suffolk as late as Saturday last, and information as late as Monday from the vicinity. The impression prevails that the yankees are preparing to were sent off, but to what point was not known. On Saturday last the negro women were receiving passes to go to Norfolk and Portsmouth.
